EVERY TILES IS MASTERPIECE

For architecture and design, carving are an excellent planning and style resource, ideal for creating grand, striking effects; they're equally suitable for smaller spaces, offering versatility in terms of composition and material.

Clay features the coated effect typical of carving, with a slightly shiny effect on a matt surface, in a palette of dense colours, both warm and cool, ranging from white through three different shades of grey, from greige to taupe, and three colours with a contemporary soul cotto, mustard and petrol blue, suitable for bringing a touch of character to any setting.

A modern kitchen interior featuring a large, light-colored tiled wall. A horizontal band of mosaic tiles, composed of irregular white and beige pieces with small, dark, shell-like accents, runs across the wall. To the left, a dark wooden shelf holds various kitchen items, including a potted plant, jars, and hanging utensils. To the right, a white shelf holds more kitchenware. Below the mosaic, a dark wooden countertop houses a sink with a modern faucet and a stovetop with a pot. The lower cabinets are light-colored with a dark wood grain. In the foreground, a dark wooden island with a light-colored countertop is visible, with two black bar stools underneath. The floor is made of large, light-colored tiles.
